Focus of Research

Social psychology, communication, social endocrinology, evolution and human behavior. Empirical work explores intimate relationships, sexuality, psychological sex differences, social inference, evolution and health, and the effects of reproductive hormones on human behavior.

Education

Ph.D., University of Texas, Austin, Psychology: August, 2000

M.A., College of William & Mary, Psychology: 1997

B.A., University of San Diego, Psychology; magna cum laude: 1992

Academic Employment History

2012, Professor, Department of Psychology, Department of Communication Studies, and the Institute for Society and Genetics, University of California, Los Angeles

2006-2012, Associate Professor, Departments of Communication Studies and Psychology, University of California, Los Angeles

2000-2006, Assistant Professor, Departments of Communication Studies and Psychology, University of California, Los Angeles

Directorships and Honors

Program Chair, Annual Conference of the Human Behavior and Evolution Society, Albuquerque, New Mexico (2012)

Fellow, Society for Experimental Social Psychology (elected Fall 2011)

Co-Editor in Chief, Evolution and Human Behavior, (2006-2011; Impact Factor: 3.64)

Associate Director, UCLA Interdisciplinary Relationship Science Program (2006-2011; funded by the National Science Foundation/IGERT)

Council Member at Large, Human Behavior and Evolution Society (2005-2011)

Editorial Board Member, Journal of Personality and Social Psychology: IRGP (2005-Present);
Evolution and Human Behavior (2011-Present); Evolutionary Psychology (2006-Present)

Nominee, J. Arthur Woodward Graduate Mentor Award, UCLA (2005)

Recipient, UCLA Career Development Award (2004)

Executive Board Member, UCLA Center for Behavior, Evolution, and Culture (2001-Present)

Research Funding (direct costs; PI on all grants listed)
